En Route!

Next Reflex Dance Collective & Dogtown Dance Theatre bring en Route! to Harrisonburg, VA. en Route is a touring dance project which facilitates performances and education/outreach opportunities for local artists in areas that Next Reflex Dance Collective selects every year. NRDC works on a collaborative level with local theaters and artists to produce a one or two night performance as well as outreach classes in each selected location. Collaborating with various artists in this way builds interest and audience in the dance scenes in each location.

For a second year, NRDC will present Richmond's local artists at the Grace Street Theater. Participating companies include RVA Dance Collective and BNW Dance. NRDC's Artistic Director's Roxann Morgan Rowley and Erika Surma will also present new work. On the program are various solo and group works offering something for everyone. en Route! is appropriate for all ages and welcomes a new to dance audience!
